Big Creek's par 4s range from the relatively short (but heavily bunkered) 325-yard #16, all the way up to the brutal #7 at 491 yards. The four par 5s include two that may be reachable (depending on your risk/reward decision) and two that are definitely three-shot holes. The four par 3s all face in different directions with each offering unique challenges - whether they be water, sand or mainly length. The five sets of tees allow every caliber of golfer to play the course to their level of expertise.
